

Hotel Vagabond

A shrub cut and shaped like a dog greeted us outside Hotel Vagabond and once we patted the dog's leafy head and entered, we were faced by a gigantic golden rhino at the reception and sitting behind was a receptionist with an old school telephone and modern day laptop. The entire hotel seemed to be home to bunch of similar creatures as we spotted a huge golden elephant and a golden ape at the bar.

The rooms come up with a super high bed with a fluffy mattress- the better to jump on {we're kidding. No more monkeys jumping on the bed, remember?} There's a lot going on in the rooms in terms of antique decor items, printed bedsheets, table cloths and art on the walls; so rest assured you'll be occupied even when you're just taking rest.
